

CHAPTER 2

GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATION

Article 1. Board Organization and ProcedureSection 2-101. Regular Meeting: Time and Place

The Town Board shall hold regular meetings the second and fourth Wednesday of each month at 7:00 P.M., except when a legal holiday falls on the second or fourth Wednesday. In such a case the Town Board shall hold its regular meeting on the second or fourth Thursday of the month. All regular Board meetings shall be held at the Town Hall.

Effective 06/12/07 by Ordinance 2007-05-01.

Section 2-102. Special Meetings

Special meetings shall be called by the Clerk-Treasurer upon the request of the President or a majority of members of the Board. Notice shall also be posted in the Town Hall prior to such meetings.

Section 2-103. The Presiding Officer: Duties

The President shall serve as chairman of the Board. The chairman of the Board shall be the Presiding Officer. The Presiding Officer shall preserve strict order and decorum at all regular and special meetings of the Board. He shall state every question coming before the Board, announce the decision of the Board on all subjects and decide all questions of order, subject, however, to an appeal of the Board, in which event a majority vote of the Board shall govern and conclusively determine such questions of order. The President may take part in all discussions and shall have a vote only in case of a tie. He shall sign all ordinances and regulations adopted by the Board in his presence.

Section 2-104. Roll Call

Before proceeding with the business of the Board, the Town Clerk shall call the roll of the members, and the names of those present shall be entered into the minutes.

Section 2-105. Quorum

A majority of all the members elected to the Board shall constitute a quorum at any regular or special meeting of the Board. In the absence of a quorum, the Presiding Officer may compel the attendance of absent members.

Section 2-106. Order of Business

All meetings of the Board shall be open to the public. Promptly at the hour set on the day of each regular meeting, the members of the Board, the Town Clerk, and the President shall take their regular stations in the Town Hall and the business of the Board shall be taken up for consideration and disposition in the following order:

1. Call to order.
2. Roll call.
3. Approval of minutes of previous meeting.
4. Petitions, remonstrances and communications.
5. Introduction and adoption of resolutions and ordinances.
6. Report of Officers - Boards - Committees.
7. Unfinished Business.
8. New Business.
9. Miscellaneous.
10. Appropriations.
11. Adjournment.

Section 2-107. Rules of Debate

1. Presiding Officer. The President, or such other member of the Board as may be presiding, may move, second and debate from the chair, subject only to such limitations of debate as are by these rules imposed on all members and shall not be deprived of any of the rights and privileges of a Board member by reason of his action as Presiding Officer, except as provided in Section 2-103.

2. Getting the floor - improper references to be avoided. Every member desiring to speak shall address the Chair, and, upon recognition by the Presiding Officer, shall confine himself to the questions under debate, avoiding all personalities and indecorous language.

3. Interruptions. A member, once recognized, shall not be interrupted when speaking unless it be to call him to order, or as herein otherwise provided. If a member, while speaking, be called to order, he shall cease speaking until the question of order be determined, and, if in order, he shall be permitted to proceed.

4. Privilege of closing debate. The Board member moving the adoption of an ordinance or resolution shall have the privilege of closing the debate.

5. Remarks of Board Member When Entered in Minutes. A Board member may request, through the Presiding Officer, the privilege of having an abstract of his statement on any subject under consideration by the Board entered in the minutes. If the Board consents thereto, such statement shall be entered in the minutes.

6. Synopsis of debate when entered in minutes. The Town Clerk may be directed by the Presiding Officer, with consent of the Board, to enter in the minutes a synopsis of the discussion on any questions coming regularly before the Board.

Section 2-108. Addressing the Board.

Any person desiring to address the Board shall first secure the permission of the Presiding Officer to do so; provided, however, that under the following headings of business, unless the Presiding Officer rules otherwise, any qualified person may address the Board without securing such prior permission:

1. Written Communications. Interested parties or their authorized representatives may address the Board by written communications in regard to matters then under discussion.
2. Oral Communications. Taxpayers or residents of the Town, or their authorized legal representatives, may address the Board by oral communications on any matter concerning the town business, or any matter over which the Board has control: provided, however, that preference shall be given to those persons who may have notified the Town Clerk in advance of their desire to speak in order that the same may appear on the agenda of the Board.

Section 2-109. Addressing the Board after Motion Made.

After a motion is made by the Board, no person shall address the Board without first securing the permission of the Presiding Officer to do so.

Section 2-110. Manner of Addressing Board: Time Limit

Each person addressing the Board shall step up to the Board table, shall give his name and address in an audible tone of voice for the records, and unless further time is granted by the Board, shall limit his address to five minutes. All remarks shall be addressed to the Board as a body and not to any member thereof. No person, other than the Board and the person having the floor, shall be permitted to enter into any discussion, either directly or through a member of the Board, without permission of the Presiding Officer. No question shall be asked a Board member except through the Presiding Officer. No question shall be asked a Board member except through the Presiding Officer. The foregoing shall not apply to members of the Board or the President.

Section 2-111. Decorum

1. By Board Members. While the Board is in session, the members must preserve order and decorum, and a member shall neither by conversation or otherwise, delay or interrupt the proceedings or the peace of the Board nor disturb any member while speaking or refuse to obey the orders of the Board or its presiding Officer, except as otherwise herein provided.

2. By persons. Any persons making personal, impertinent, or slanderous remarks or who shall become boisterous while addressing the Board shall be forthwith, by the Presiding Officer, barred from further audience before the Board, unless permission to continue be granted by a majority vote of the Board.

Section 2-112. Special Committees

All special committees shall be appointed by the Board unless otherwise directed by the Board.

Section 2-113. Members May File Protests Against Board Action

Any member shall have the right to have the reasons for his dissent from, or protest against, any action of the Board entered in the minutes.

Section 2-114. Claims Against the Town

No account or other demand against the Town shall be allowed until the same has been considered and reported upon by the Board.

Section 2-115. Reports and Resolutions to be Filed with Town Clerk

All reports, ordinances, and resolutions shall be filed with the Town Clerk and entered in the minutes.

Section 2-116. Adjournment

A motion to adjourn shall always be in order and decided without debate.

Article 2. Organization of Government

Section 2-201. Statement of Policy

The benefits of proper organization and the allied benefits of clear lines of authority and responsibility within an organization are many. In order that such benefits shall accrue to the Town of North East, it is the policy and intent of the Town Board that a suitable form of organization be adopted for the government of the Town, and that henceforth the general operation of the Town be carried forth within the framework of said form of organization.

Section 2-202. General Form of Organization

The general form of organization for the government of the Town shall be as follows:

1. The President and Town Board shall share final authority and responsibility over all the affairs of the Town.
2. The Town Administrator shall be the Chief Agent of the Town Board and shall be responsible for the general operation and management of the Town government.
3. Such Citizens' Advisory Boards as may be established from time to time shall be directly responsible to the President and shall also act in an advisory capacity to the President and Town Board.
4. The Town Attorney shall be directly responsible to the Town Board and shall also act in an advisory capacity to the President, as well as any town department heads or commission chairmen.

Section 2-203. Duties of Town Clerk

Under the required supervision, the Town Clerk possesses the authority to:

1. Serve as Clerk of the Board.
2. Attend every Board meeting and keep a full and accurate account of the proceedings of the Board.
3. Keep other such records and perform other such duties as may be required elsewhere in the Town Charter or by the Board.

Section 2-204. Duties of Town Attorney

The Town Attorney shall be the legal advisor of the Town and shall perform such duties in this connection as may be required by the Town Charter or by the Board.

Section 2-205. Duties of Town Treasurer

Under the required supervision, the Treasurer possesses the authority to:

1. Prepare an annual budget to be submitted to the Board.
2. Supervise and be responsible for the disbursement of all monies and have control over all expenditures to assure that any budget appropriations are not exceeded.
3. Maintain a general accounting system for the Town in such form as the Board may require, not contrary to State law.
4. Submit at the end of each fiscal year, and at such other times as the Board may require, a complete financial report to the Board.
5. Receive from the Tax Collector all monies collected for taxes, special assessments, license fees, liens, and all other revenue (including utility revenues) of the Town and all other revenues for whose collection the Town Tax Collector is responsible.
6. Have custody of all public monies, belonging to or under the control of the Town, except as to funds in the control of any set of trustees, and have custody of all bonds and notes of the Town.
7. Do such other things in relation to the fiscal or financial affairs of the Town as the President of the Board may require or as maybe required by the Town Charter or by the Board.

Section 2-206. Duties of Town Tax Collector

Under the supervision of the President, the Tax Collector shall have the authority and be required to:

1. Ascertain that all taxable property within the Town is assessed for taxation.
2. Collect all taxes and other assessments for whose collection the Town is responsible. All monies collected shall be accounted for and turned over to the Town Treasurer.

3. Perform such other duties as may be required by the Town Charter or by the Board.

Section 2-207. Duties of Town Police Chief

The Town Police Chief shall be responsible for maintaining law and order within the Town and shall perform such duties in this connection as may be required by the Town Charter or by the Board.

Section 2-208. Duties of Town Engineer

The Town Engineer shall be responsible for the efficient operation and maintenance of all physical facilities required for the proper welfare of the Town and shall perform such duties in this connection as may be required by the Town Charter or by the Board.

Section 2-209. Duties of Town Administrator

The Town Administrator shall be the chief agent of the Town Board and shall be responsible for the general operation and management of the Town Government.

Section 2-210. Prerogatives of the Town Board

The Town Board reserves the right to add or abolish positions within the plan of organization as may be necessary to carry forth the intent and purpose of this Article.

Section 2-211. Use of Personnel

The President shall have the authority to employ personnel in dual capacities on an interdepartmental basis if such employment shall be deemed necessary in the interests of economy and efficiency.

Section 2-212. Applicability

The provisions of this Article shall not be construed in such a manner as would render them in conflict with the provisions of the Town Charter.

Article 3. Planning Commission

Section 2-301. Composition; Appointment; Term of Members; Vacancies; Compensation

The Commission shall consist of five (5) members. Four members of the Commission shall be appointed by the President, subject to confirmation by the Town Commissioners. The terms of all members shall be five years or until their successors take office, and the terms of the four members first appointed by the President shall be two, three, four, and five years respectively, from the effective date of creation of the Commission, and shall be specified by the President at the time of appointment. The remaining member shall be, pursuant to the provisions of Article 66B of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), a member of the Town Board and shall be appointed by the Town Board.

The term of the member first appointed by the Town Board shall be for one year. Notwithstanding the a foregoing, the term of the member appointed by the Town Board shall cease whenever his official tenure as a member of the President and Commissioners terminates. A vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which a member of the Commission is appointed shall be filled in a like manner for the remainder of the unexpired term for which his predecessor was appointed. The four members of the Commission appointed by the President shall serve without compensation. The member appointed by the Town Board from its own membership shall serve without additional compensation.

Section 2-302. Election of a Chairman

The Commission shall elect a Chairman from among the members appointed by the President.

Section 2-303. Powers and Duties of the Commission

The Commission shall have the Powers and Duties provided for in Article 66B as now or hereafter amended, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition) and as set forth in the Zoning Ordinance and Subdivision Regulations.

Section 2-405. Conflicts of Interest

1. In this section, "qualified relative" means a spouse, parent, child, or sibling.

2. All Town elected officials, officials appointed to Town boards and commissions subject to this Article, and employees are subject to this section.

3. Participation prohibitions. Except as permitted by Commission regulation or opinion, an official or employee may not participate in:

a. Except in the exercise of an administrative or ministerial duty that does not affect the disposition or decision of the matter, any matter in which, to the knowledge of the official or employee, the official or employee, or a qualified relative of the official or employee has an interest.

b. Except in the exercise of an administrative or ministerial duty that does not affect the disposition or decision with respect to the matter, any matter in which any of the following is a party:

(i) A business entity in which the official or employee has a direct financial interest of which the official or employee may reasonably be expected to know;

(ii) A business entity for which the official, employee, or a qualified relative of the official or employee is an officer, director, trustee, partner, or employee;

(iii) A business entity with which the official or employee or, to the knowledge of the official or employee, a qualified relative is negotiating employment or has any arrangement concerning prospective employment.

(iv) If the contract reasonably could be expected to result in a conflict between the private interests of the official or employee and the official duties of the official or employee, a business entity that is a party to an existing contract with the official or employee, or which, to the knowledge of the official or employee, is a party to a contract with a qualified relative;

(v) An entity, doing business with the Town, in which a direct financial interest is owned by another entity in which the official or employee has a direct financial interest, if the official or employee may be reasonably expected to know of both direct financial interests; or

(vi) A business entity that:

(A) The official or employee knows is a creditor or obligee of the official or employee or a qualified relative of the official or employee with respect to a thing of economic value; and

(B) As a creditor or obligee, is in a position to directly and substantially affect the interest of the official or employee or a qualified relative of the official or employee.

c. A person who is disqualified from participating under paragraphs (3)(a) or (3)(b) of this subsection shall disclose the nature and circumstances of the conflict and may participate or act if:

- (i) The disqualification leaves a body with less than a quorum capable of acting;
- (ii) The disqualified official or employee is required by law to act; or
- (iii) The disqualified official or employee is the only person authorized to act.

d. The prohibitions of paragraph (3)(a) and (3)(b) of this subsection do not apply if participation is allowed by regulation or opinion of the Commission.

4. Employment and financial interest restrictions.

a. Except as permitted by regulation of the Commission when the interest is disclosed or when the employment does not create a conflict of interest or appearance of conflict, an official or employee may not:

(i) Be employed by or have a financial interest in any entity:

(A) Subject to the authority of the official or employee or the Town board, commission with which the official or employee is affiliated; or

(B) That is negotiating or has entered a contract with the board, or commission with which the official or employee is affiliated; or

(ii) Hold any other employment relationship that would impair the impartiality or independence of judgment of the official or employee.

b. This prohibition does not apply to:

(i) An official or employee who is appointed to a regulatory or licensing authority pursuant to a statutory requirement that persons subject to the jurisdiction of the authority be represented in appointments to the authority;

(ii) Subject to other provisions of law, a member of a board or commission in regard to a financial interest or employment held at the time of appointment, provided the financial interest or employment is publicly disclosed to the appointing authority and the Commission;

(iii) An official or employee whose duties are ministerial, if the private employment or financial interest does not create a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest, as permitted by and in accordance with regulations adopted by the Commission; or

(iv) Employment or financial interests allowed by regulation of the Commission if the employment does not create a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest or the financial interest is disclosed.

5. Post-employment limitations and restrictions.

a. A former official or employee may not assist or represent any party other than the Town for compensation in a case, contract, or other specific matter involving the Town if that matter is one in which the former official or employee significantly participated as an official or employee.

b. Until the conclusion of the next regular session that begins after the elected official leaves office, a former member of the Town Board may not assist or represent another party for compensation in a matter that is the subject of legislative action.

6. Contingent compensation. Except in a judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding, an official or employee may not assist or represent a party for contingent compensation in any matter before or involving the Town.

7. Use of prestige of office.

a. An official or employee may not intentionally use the prestige of office or public position for the private gain of that official or employee or the private gain of another.

b. This subsection does not prohibit the performance of usual and customary constituent services by an elected local official without additional compensation.

8. Solicitation and acceptance of gifts.

a. An official or employee may not solicit any gift.

b. An official or employee may not directly solicit or facilitate the solicitation of a gift, on behalf of another person, from an individual regulated lobbyist.

c. An official or employee may not knowingly accept a gift, directly or indirectly, from a person that the official or employee knows or has the reason to know:

(i) Is doing business with or seeking to do business with the Town office, board, or commission with which the official or employee is affiliated;

(ii) Has financial interests that may be substantially and materially affected, in a manner distinguishable from the public generally, by the performance or nonperformance of the official duties of the official or employee;

(iii) Is engaged in an activity regulated or controlled by the official's or employee's governmental unit; or

(iv) Is a lobbyist with respect to matters within the jurisdiction of the official or employee.

d. Paragraph (e) of this subsection does not apply to a gift:

(i) That would tend to impair the impartiality and the independence of judgment of the official or employee receiving the gift;

(ii) Of significant value that would give the appearance of impairing the impartiality and independence of judgment of the official or employee; or

(iii) Of significant value that the recipient official or employee believes or has reason to believe is designed to impair the impartiality and independence of judgment of the official or employee.

e. Notwithstanding paragraph (8)(c) of this subsection, an official or employee may accept the following:

(i) Meals and beverages consumed in the presence of the donor or sponsoring entity;

(ii) Ceremonial gifts or awards that have insignificant monetary value;

(iii) Unsolicited gifts of nominal value that do not exceed $20.00 in cost or trivial items of informational value;

(iv) Reasonable expenses for food, travel, lodging, and scheduled entertainment of the official or the employee at a meeting which is given in return for the participation of the official or employee in a panel or speaking engagement at the meeting;

(v) Gifts of tickets or free admission extended to an elected local official to attend a charitable, cultural, or political event, if the purpose of this gift or admission is a courtesy or ceremony extended to the elected official's office;

(vi) A specific gift or class of gifts that the Commission exempts from the operation of this subsection upon a finding, in writing, that acceptance of the gift or class of gifts would not be detrimental to the impartial conduct of the business of the Town and that the gift is purely personal and private in nature;

(vii) Gifts from a person related to the official or employee by blood or marriage, or any other individual who is a member of the household of the official or employee; or (viii) Honoraria for speaking to or participating in a meeting, provided that the offering of the honorarium is in not related in any way to the official's or employee's official position.

9. Disclosure of confidential information. Other than in the discharge of official duties, an official or employee may not disclose or use confidential information, that the official or employee acquired by reason of the official's or employee's public position and that is not available to the public, for the economic benefit of the official or employee or that of another person.

10. Participation in procurement.

a. An individual or a person that employs an individual who assists the Town in the drafting of specifications, an invitation for bids, or a request for proposals for a procurement may not submit a bid or proposal for that procurement or assist or represent another person, directly or indirectly, who is submitting a bid or proposal for the procurement.

b. The Commission may establish exemptions from the requirements of this section for providing descriptive literature, sole source procurements, and written comments solicited by the procuring agency.

Section 2-406. Financial Disclosure — Local Elected Officials and Candidates to be Local Elected Officials

1. a. This section applies to all local elected officials and candidates to be local elected officials.

b. Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a local elected official or a candidate to be a local elected official shall file the financial disclosure statement required under this section:

(i) On a form provided by the Commission;

(ii) Under oath or affirmation; and

(iii) With the Commission.

c. Deadlines for filing statements.

(i) An incumbent local elected official shall file a financial disclosure statement annually no later than April 30 of each year for the preceding calendar year.

(ii) An individual who is appointed to fill a vacancy in an office for which a financial disclosure statement is required and who has not already filed a financial disclosure statement shall file a statement for the preceding calendar year within 30 days after appointment.

(iii) (A) An individual who, other than by reason of death, leaves an office for which a statement is required shall file a statement within 60 days after leaving the office.

(B) The statement shall cover:

(1) The calendar year immediately preceding the year in which the individual left office, unless a statement covering that year has already been filed by the individual; and

(2) The portion of the current calendar year during which the individual held the office.

2. Candidates to be local elected officials.

a. Except for an official who has filed a financial disclosure statement under another provision of this section for the reporting period, a candidate to be an elected local official shall file under a financial disclosure statement each year beginning with the year in which the certificate of candidacy is filed through the year of the election.

b. A candidate to be an elected local official shall file a statement required under this section:

(i) In the year the certificate of candidacy is filed, no later than the filing of the certificate of candidacy;

(ii) In the year of the election, on or before the earlier of April 30 or the last day for the withdrawal of candidacy; and

(iii) In all other years for which a statement is required, on or before April 30.

c. A candidate to be an elected official:

(i) May file the statement required under Section 2-406(2)(b) of this Article with the Town Administrator or Board of Election Supervisors with the certificate of candidacy or with the Commission prior to filing the certificate of candidacy; and

(ii) Shall file the statements required under Section 2-406 (2)(b) with the Commission.

d. If a candidate fails to file a statement required by this section after written notice is provided by the Town Administrator or Board of Election Supervisors at least 20 days before the last day for the withdrawal of candidacy, the candidate is deemed to have withdrawn the candidacy.

e. The Town Administrator or Board of Election Supervisors may not accept any certificate of candidacy unless a statement has been filed in proper form.

f. Within 30 days of the receipt of a statement required under this section, the Town Administrator or Board of Election.

Supervisors shall forward the statement to the Commission or the office designated by the Commission.

3. Public record.

a. The Commission or office designated by the Commission shall maintain all financial disclosure statements filed under this section.

b. Financial disclosure statements shall be made available during normal office hours for examination and copying by the public subject to reasonable fees and administrative procedures established by the Commission.

c. If an individual examines or copies a financial disclosure statement, the Commission or the office designated by the Commission shall record:

(i) The name and home address of the individual reviewing or copying the statement; and

(ii) The name of the person whose financial disclosure statement was examined or copied.
