Town of North East Public Ethics Definitions

Business Entity means a corporation, general or limited partnership, sole proprietorship, joint venture, unincorporated association or firm, institution, trust, foundation, or other organization, whether or not operated for profit. Business entity does not include a government entity.

Commission means the Town Ethics Commission.

Compensation means any money or thing or value, regardless of form, received or to be received by any individual covered by this Article from an employer for service rendered. If lobbying is only a portion of a person's employment, "compensation" means a prorated amount based on the time devoted to lobbying compared to the time devoted to other employment duties.

Doing Business With means: (a) having or negotiating a contract that involves the commitment, either in a single or combination of transactions, of $5,000.00 or more of Town controlled funds; (b) being regulated by or otherwise subject to the authority of the Town and (c) being registered as a lobbyist.

Elected Official means any individual who holds an elective office of the Town.

Employee means an individual who is employed by the Town. "Employee" does not include an elected local official.

Financial Interest means: (a) ownership of any interest as the result of which the owner has received, within the past 3 years, or is presently receiving, or in the future is entitled to receive, more than $1,000.00 per year; or (b) ownership, or the ownership of securities of any kind representing or convertible into ownership, of more than 3 percent of a business entity by a Town official or employee, or the spouse of an official or employee.

Gift means the transfer of anything of economic value, regardless of the form, without adequate and lawful consideration. "Gift" does not include a political campaign contribution regulated under Election Law Article, Annotated Code of Maryland, or any other provision of State or local law regulating the conduct of elections or the receipt of political campaign contributions.

Interest means a legal or equitable economic interest, whether or not subject to an encumbrance or a condition, that is owned or held, in whole or in part, jointly or severally, directly or indirectly. "Interest" includes any interest held at any time during the reporting period. "Interest" does not include: (a) an interest held in the capacity of a personal agent, custodian, fiduciary, personal representative, or trustee, unless the holder has an equitable interest in the subject matter; (b) an interest in a time or demand deposit in a financial institution; (c) an interest in an insurance policy, endowment policy, or annuity contract under which an insurer promises to pay a fixed amount of money either in a lump sum or periodically for life or a specified period; (d) a common trust fund or a trust which forms part of a pension or profit sharing plan which has more than 25 participants and which has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service to be a qualified trust under the Internal Revenue Code; or (e) a college savings plan under the Internal Revenue Code.

Lobbyist means a person required to register and report expenses related to lobbying.

Lobbying means: (a) communicating in the presence of a Town official or employee with the intent to influence any official action of that official or employee; or (b) engaging in activities with the express purpose of soliciting others to communicate with a Town official or employee with the intent to influence that official or employee.

Official means an elected official, an employee of the Town, or a person appointed to or employed by the Town or any Town board, commission, or similar entity: (a) whether or not paid in whole or in part with Town funds; and (b) whether or not compensated.

Person includes an individual or business entity.

Qualified Relative means a spouse, parent, child, brother, or sister.
